INFORMATION ABOUT CRANDALL -

There are two categories of cities in Texas local governments:

- ▶ Home Rule - cities over 5,000 population that have held an election to become Home Rule
- ▶ General Law - smaller cities / Type C, Type B or Type A

The City of Crandall is a Type A General Law Municipality, being the larger of general law municipalities. Crandall does not have a city charter. General Law cities refer to state law to determine and govern how and what they may do.

The governing body of Crandall consists of a mayor and five council members. All members of the Crandall City Council play special roles in making the city government operate effectively. Most of their functions are set by law. The Crandall City Council has the power to pass, publish, amend, repeal and enforce all ordinances within the City, not contrary to the Constitution of this State. Policy direction is the City Council's focus, while the appointed City Manager implements the Council policy.

The Texas Election Law requires certain disclosures and notices on political advertising. Please review the political advertising guide and the City's current sign ordinance (both of which are included in this packet). There are no permits that are required for political signs, however they cannot be placed on utility poles, or between the sidewalk and the curb (street right-a-way). We ask for your discretion in the placement of such signs. If you have questions, please contact the Crandall Code Enforcement Officer, Jason Brooks at 972.427.3771 x118 for assistance.

Crandall City Council meetings are held on the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month with special meetings called as needed. Special workshops or work sessions are designed to facilitate budget, policy discussion, or direction as needed by Staff.

Interest in your municipal government is appreciated and I trust that this will be a positive and exciting experience for you and your supporters.

All necessary and required forms to file for a place on the ballot including campaign finance reports and guides are included in this packet. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at tchappell@crandalltexas.com or the office number at 972.427.3771 anytime during normal business hours. Best Wishes!

Sincerely,

NEPOTISM LAW

However, nothing in the law prevents the appointment, voting for, or confirmation of anyone who has been continuously employed in the office or employment for the following period prior to the election or appointment of the officer or member related to the employee in the prohibited degree: six months, if the officer or member is elected at an election other than the general election for state and county officers.

No candidate may take action to influence an employee of the office to which the candidate is seeking election or an employee or officer of the governmental body to which the candidate is seeking election regarding the appointment or employment of a person related to the candidate in a prohibited degree as noted above.
